To Whom It May Concern

Dear concerned

It is a great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Rudratosh Shastri. I have known Rudratosh Shastri from 02-May-2016 to 21-Dec-2017. when he worked in IT department as an Project Manager.

Rudratosh Shastri had proved to adapt quickly to work environments and stand out among his colleagues, both in the office and on the field. As a Sr. Software Developer he recorded more project completion and revenue than his peers. With his excellent development skills, he had done seven projects for the company; this is a record no single employee has reached ever since. He is committed to his work and would deliver positively even before expiration.

Working under pressure is an attribute most common with Rudratosh Shastri. When things need to be done at the eleventh hour, Rudratosh Shastri is just the perfect fit for the job. Rudratosh Shastri is a practicable person that relates theories to real life situation. Rudratosh Shastri is a professional at what he does, with the absolute objective of recording success.

I have no reservations in recommending him for the post of Project Manager or Team Leader in your organization, as Rudratosh Shastri would be a breakthrough for any organization.

Sincerely,
Sneha Gupta (HR)
